- No Alcohol is permitted inside the Matandy SportsPlex.
- No outside food or drink is permitted inside the stadium. This includes tumblers.
- All seats are first come, first serve. There is no reserved seating.
- Badin Students will sit in the student section at the south end of the bleachers (far side of home bleachers closest to the video board).
- Gates will open 90 minutes before a varsity football game and 1 hour prior to the start of a soccer match.
- No- Re-entry - Fans are not permitted to leave the stadium to go to their cars. Once you leave, you must purchase another ticket to re-enter the stadium.

Tickets - Varsity Football

- Tickets will be offered first to those who have participated in the funding of this stadium and the parents of the players and cheerleaders. A link will be emailed out the week prior to a home game to this group to purchase your tickets. (i.e. - week 3 is the first home varsity football game-this link will be emailed out the Monday of week 2) We ask that you only purchase tickets for your immediate family.
- If additional tickets are available, the link will be made available to the public for purchasing tickets on the Monday of the week of the game.
- If the game is not sold out, tickets can be purchased at the gate. Due to the large number of fans we expect at the games - you are encouraged to purchase tickets on-line to avoid the lines. Tickets at the gate can be purchased by cash or credit card.

Handicap parking - All Games

- Handicap parking for the stadium is in the upper parking lot behind school. A vehicle must have a valid handicap parking permit displayed to park in one of these spots. There are 16 spots available in the upper parking lot.
